

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Trinity Anglican Church will begin services in White River Junction on Sunday, May 3 at 11:15 pm at Valley Bible Church, 851 Fairview Terrace, just off Sykes Avenue

Trinity Anglican Church is an eleven year-old family size parish that began services in August 2004 in the historic Trinity church in Cornish, New Hampshire. Since that time, the parish has met in West Lebanon and most recently in Lebanon, New Hampshire.

Trinity Church worships according to the traditional 1928 Book of Common Prayer. Preaching and teaching and Biblically based. The congregation is drawn from Upper Valley communities of Vermont and New Hampshire. The parish is pastored by Bishop Brian Marsh and Deacon Robert Philp.

All are welcome to attend services. Newcomers and inquirers should follow the signs to the entrance of the crypt chapel, located in the lower level of the church building.

For more information, please contact: Allan Wylie, (802) 765-4587 or visit our website at : acanedio.com.